Folklore Performance

Hungary is one of the very few countries where folk-dancing as on an incredibly high artistic level. It is not a coincidence that there is also a college exclusively for Hungarian folk-dance studies. Our authentic folk-dance shows take place in the Duna Palota and the Budai Vigadó, performed by three of the best professional Hungarian folk ensembles.

The Hungarian State Folk Ensemble, the Danube Folk Ensemble and the Hungaria Folk Ensemble & Orchestra are three of the best professional Hungarian folk ensembles with the longest tradition (since 1951, 1957 and 1952). The performed dances give the viewer a broad insight into Hungarian music, dance and costume heritage, covering traditions of former parts of Hungary as well.

To make your trip as comfortable as possible, we provide transfer service to the concert and all of its packages, from your accommodation to the theatre and back home after the end of the program.

Every concert starts at 20:00 consisting of two 40-45 minutes long parts with an intermission.
